

THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Office of the Director

21 March 1974

Major General Franklin M. Davis, Jr., USA
Commandant
U.S. Army War College
Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania 17013

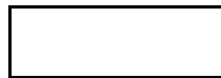

Dear General Davis:

As the DCI has written you, he will unfortunately not be able to accept personally your 7 March invitation to participate in the Security Issues Symposium on 22 - 23 April and has asked me to attend in his stead. I am looking forward to the occasion and hope I will be able to make the kind of contribution you are looking for.

On the items normally covered in your "response sheet," I will be traveling with Lt. Gen. Graham. I understand that he has arranged for a helicopter to take us from Washington to Carlisle on Sunday, 21 April, and another to bring us back on Tuesday, 23 April. We would thus appreciate billeting arrangements for Sunday and Monday nights. Time and schedule pressures will preclude my preparing a paper for presentation, but I will certainly try to talk about any particular subjects you think it would be helpful for me to address.

Again, on the DCI's behalf as well as my own, many thanks for your kind invitation. It should be an interesting session, and I look forward to seeing you in April.

Sincerely yours,

George A. Carver, Jr.
Deputy for National Intelligence Officers

Dear General Davis: Frank-

Thank you for the invitation to attend the Security Issues Symposium. It sounds like a most interesting two days. Regrettably I will be unable to attend. General Graham, however, is accepting your invitation, and I have asked Mr. George A. Carver, Jr., our Deputy for National Intelligence Officers, to accompany him on my behalf. Mr. Carver will be forwarding a response sheet in the near future.

IN REPLY REFER TO:

Office of the Commandant

7 March 1974

Dear Mr. Colby:

I cordially invite you to the College's Security Issues Symposium at Carlisle Barracks the 22nd and 23rd of April 1974. A select group of senior policymakers will discuss national security issues without regard to traditional Service or Departmental bounds.

With the theme "Changing Dynamics of National Security," the symposium format will be unconstrained, allowing participants to introduce relevant topics as well as facilitating presentation of papers developed by our Faculty and Strategic Studies Institute. It is our intention to provide an informal, nonpressure environment in which you may address the components of the theme. You are invited to note your interests on the inclosed response sheet, and may indicate a desire to present a related paper should you so desire.

Participants from the State Department, the Department of Defense, each Service, and Defense Agencies are being invited. Mr. J. J. Johnson, Senior Vice President and Director, Arabian American Oil Company, International, will speak the evening of the 22nd on issues pertinent to the symposium theme.

I hope you will be able to attend and play an active role. In addition to the response sheet, which we would like returned by 1 April 1974, you will find a preliminary schedule inclosed for your convenience.

With warm regards.

Sincerely,

FRANKLIN M. DAVIS, JR.
